

CIF's Top-Rated Keep on Winning

Mater Dei used its favorite weapon — the Big "O" (for zero) — and Centennial sprung its one-man-gang—the Big Mick — and the result was a pair of impressive weekend wins for the two top-rated prep clubs in the Southland.

Mater Dei, Centennial and El Rancho were named to the one-two-three positions for the second week. Defending CIF 4-A champion Mater Dei buried Burroughs of Burbank, 26-0.

Centennial allowed 41 points but still came away with a 23 point win... 64-41 over Muir of Pasadena. In the voting for first place Mater Dei edged Centennial, 7-3, but in the total points it was only 135 to 131 for the Monarchs. El Rancho is third at 122 followed by Wilson, Anaheim, Pasadena, Long Beach Poly, Santa Ana, Lakewood and St. Francis.

In the 3-A division, West Covina picked up 10 first place votes and 133 total points to far - outdistance South Pasadena and Santa Maria. West Covina's 26-6 win over Ganesha was the 15th straight for the Spartans.
